Oldsters vs. Youngsters.

An impromptu match was played at the local curling shed on Thursday last. The contest was between four rinks—two of these representing the younger players, and the other two teams representing the oldtimers. The skips on the latter outfit were F W Yeats and J W McCulla. For the younger players Messrs D E Moyer and Art Mundt were the skips. The stakes were the mid-night refreshments at the Ham burger House. The play was rather one sided, as the final scores shows: 16 for the Oldtimers; 5 for the Youngsters.

Full List of Winners.

The last rock has been trundled down the ice in the big Callithumpian Bungalow at the local curling arena, thus marking the close of the curling season so far as the big events go.

The winning team was skipped by Mrs. O. G. Wudel. The other members of the team were—Art Mundt 3, Mrs. Breitkreutz 2, Miss Clarke 1. This outfit won 10 of the 11 games they played.

The 5th winning team in the contest was that skipped by M Watt. These won the Blue Willow set. The skips of the other winning teams were—

Obituary.

Another real oldtimer of the district passed away last week, in the person of Mr John E Miesner, at the age of 76 years.

Mr Miesner was born in the State of Indiana, U. S. A., in the year 1860. He farmed for a time in the State of Nebraska. He came to Alberta in the year 1902, and settled on the homestead south of Stony Plain, on which place he had resided up to the time of his death.

Deceased suffered from a paralytic stroke, and passed away at his residence on Monday, March 23d. In religion, he was an adherent of the United Church of Canada.

The funeral took place on Friday morning from the family residence. Interment was made in the Spruce Grove cemetery. Rev L G Sieber, pastor of Stony Plain United church, officiated.

He is survived by his wife: five sons, Roy Miesner, Eimclaw, Wm; George and James, in California; L Roy, Stony Plain; Edmond, Metisko, Alberta; 3 daughters, Mrs C Creighton, Glanford, Alberta; Mrs Louie Dagangard, Onoway; Mrs J T Walton, Holborn.

John Armbruster had charge of the funeral arrangements.

The PERFECT Chewing Tobacco

Eradication Of Tuberculosis

Great forward strides have been made in the fight to stem the toll of human life taken by tuberculosis in the prairie provinces in the past few years but there are evidences that complete victory has not yet been won. There is more work yet to be done before this enemy of mankind can be said to have been totally routed.

As most residents of that province are aware, tuberculosis in Saskatchewan was some years ago brought virtually within the category of State Medicine when the sanatoria were placed under the administration of the Saskatchewan Anti-Tuberculosis League, with authority given the League to impose an annual tax levy on all municipalities, rural and urban, which, supported by government grants, furnishes the finances for treatment of all cases of the disease found within the province. In addition, it should be added, the funds for supplementary preventive work are secured from voluntary contributions realized by the sale of Christmas seals.

While not quite patterned on the Saskatchewan system, the fight against the disease in Manitoba is waged along somewhat similar lines and at the time of writing the Alberta Legislature has a bill before it which will virtually place the war against T. B. in that province within the State Medicine plane, if adopted.

As a result of the work done in Saskatchewan during the past decade, that province can boast, and with justification, that it is in the van of the fight and has to-day the lowest death rate from tuberculosis of any province in the Dominion, 30 per 1,000 deaths for last year.

Facts and figures show that, partly as a result of the preventive work, the incidence of the disease in Saskatchewan has passed the peak, that the former upward curve of the number of cases treated annually is now trending in a downward direction and that, as a further result, space in hospitals which have had to care for an overflow for which provision could not be made in the sanatoria, is no longer required for T.B. cases. An additional result is that patients in the sanatoria can be held there for treatment longer than was formerly possible, thus improving their chances of complete recovery.

While this is all to the good, there yet remain two real hazards to be definitely eradicated. These are the menace afforded by the Indian and the cow.

In the early days when the Indians roamed the prairies and lived in the open tuberculosis was practically unknown among them. It was not until they were taught to adopt the habits of the whites and confine themselves in permanent homes that they became subject to tuberculosis. Since that time the disease has become rampant among the aborigines and is taking heavy toll. In other words, the "whites" presented the Indians with tuberculosis and to-day the Indians are returning the compliment by infecting the whites with whom they come in frequent contact.

Figures were recently quoted showing that the incidence of tuberculosis among the Indian population of the prairie provinces is ten times as great as among the white inhabitants and it appears that very little at present is being done to cope with the menace.

The Indians are the wards of the Federal government and this is a situation which should receive the immediate attention of the authorities at Ottawa, if the efforts of the provincial governments in reducing the disease among the other residents of the provinces are not to be at least partially negated.

The other danger spot in the situation is the prevalence of bovine tuberculosis among cattle. While much has been done to reduce this disease among the cattle of the prairie provinces and to minimize the risk of infection from cattle to human beings via the milk route, there is still danger of infection from this source and will continue to be until it has been entirely stamped out of the herds.

Eradication will not be complete until such time as compulsory inspection of cattle for bovine tuberculosis and slaughter of all re-actors in the entire range of the prairie provinces is in effect, but this consumption cannot be achieved until there is a sufficiently strong public demand for it.

May Move Woolwich Arsenal

Vulnerability Of London To Air Attacks Is Reason Given

New emphasis on the vulnerability of London to air attack is found in reports that the governments is seriously considering moving sections of Woolwich arsenal to more remote places in the British Isles.

Talk of its removal has given the alarmists new occasion to paint a picture of gas, incendiary and explosive bombs, raining down upon the city—a city which already knows, from experience, of the terror of air raids.

It has provided proponents of a stronger air defence with new arguments in their claims that London, with its 8,000,000 inhabitants, and easily accessible from the continent, is not protected against the bombing plane.

Winston Churchill likened London to a "great fat cow which would soon be at the mercy of the nearest foraging dictator."

Public concern is likewise being fanned by current discussion in the press and in parliament as to the ability of the navy to defend itself against air attack. Countering this, however, there is the expansion, both real and indicated, of the Royal Air Force; the development of air defence; the hinted discovery of anti-aircraft weapons which would keep air invaders at bay, despite the fact London is but a matter of minutes from the continent by air.

Those who want the Woolwich arsenal moved claim it has so far been the "fatally weak spot" in every defence plan yet devised for London. No way has been found, it is stated, of protecting the arsenal and rendering it immune from attack from the skies.

King's Birthday

His Majesty Will Ride At Head Of His Troops On Anniversary

King Edward will ride at the head of his troops for the first time as sovereign when he celebrates his 42nd birthday, June 26.

It was officially announced His Majesty's birthday will be celebrated in London and at all stations of the royal navy, the army and the royal air force at home and abroad.

The principal function will be the trooping of the colors on the Horse Guards' parade. This was a ceremony always observed by the late King George, and on his last birthday, June 3, his late Majesty rode with his four sons in the picturesque ceremonial.

His Majesty's ships will be dressed over for the occasion, and royal salutes of 21 guns will be fired at certain stations. Land forces will hold ceremonial parades.

War Is Still On

Due To Omission In Participating In Signing Of Peace Treaties

A recent incident has revealed the fact that the republic of San Marino is still at war with Turkey.

The manager of a Turkish agricultural institute recently spent a few months in Europe in connection with scientific studies. When he crossed into the territory of San Marino he was greatly astonished when he was arrested as an undesirable member of a country at war with the republic.

In 1915 San Marino joined Italy in a declaration of war on Turkey, but, owing to some omission, it was invited neither to participate in the peace negotiations nor to sign the treaty of Lausanne with Turkey.

Subjects of the republic of San Marino in Turkey have always been treated as Italian nationals.

Concession To Indians

May Carry On With Potlatch Ceremony In British Columbia

Indians of the Alert Bay district in British Columbia were given another chance by the House of Commons to practice their ancient potlatch, once a regular orgy but now a more or less harmless ceremony dating back through the ages.

The potlatch has been dying out in recent years and is limited to Indians of the Kwakwaka'wakw agency on the Pacific coast who have refused to observe laws outlawing it. It is a sort of generosity spree in its present-day form. Indians collect all sorts of things, food, blankets or household utensils, call in their friends and give everything away. They have been known to impoverish themselves for years.

The Indian act provides jail sentences for Indians practicing the potlatch, but the Alert tribe had disregarded it. Indian Minister Cresser proposed a bill in the house making the law still more stringent. It received second reading but he dropped the anti-potlatch clauses in committee stage after A. W. Nell (Ind., Comox-Alberni) led a strenuous opposition to it.

The jail sentences still stand but the house decided to permit the evolutionary influences of education, which have stamped it out almost, to continue to combat it.

Harness 80 Years Old Is Still Being Used

Some kind of record may be claimed for a set of harness in almost daily use in the Orkney district of Saskatchewan. The harness is said to be around 80 years in use, having come to the United States in 1870 and found its way via Minnesota to Saskatchewan. Formerly used to decorate thoroughbred stallions and mares, it is now used on ponies which draw children to school.

The King's English

Recent Address Broadcast By Edward VIII. Was Good Sample

The papers freely discussed the address delivered by King Edward VIII. on March 1, the first to his people since ascending the throne. Considerable attention is given his choice of language and pronunciation. It is pointed out, for instance, that he used the word "radio," rather than "wireless," thus accepting the designation more common in Canada and the United States than in the Old Country. Another commentator mentions his pronunciation of "broadcast" with the short "a" as used in Canada and United States rather than the English inflection "broadcast." All seem to agree that he was as correct in his pronunciation as in his selection of styles in clothing, which is something, too, when it is realized that the new King was probably as nervous as any other ordinary man would be in approaching the microphone on such an auspicious occasion and, therefore, liable to some slight slip in pronunciation or articulation. — Port Arthur News Chronicle.

Advice From Chicago

Two Women Cabled League Delegates To Exercise Calmness

Just before the session of the League of Nations' council was to start on March 17 a messenger boy peddled up to St. James' Palace bearing 14 urgent telegrams, one to the head of each delegation. They were from two Chicago women urging the delegates to exercise the calmest and most thoughtful statesmanship while dealing with the ticklish situation.

I was very nervous so I started taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It was very helpful and improved from the very beginning. Buy now. New size, take, see, liquid form."

Lord Tweedsmuir Tells How University Training Enriches Private Life

"My last word to you on the value of university training is that it enables a man to lead a double life," wrote Lord Tweedsmuir, governor-general of Canada, in the McGill News.

"That sounds a shocking piece of advice for your visitor to give you. But if you think it over, I believe you will agree that it is sound," the governor-general said as he concluded references to hobbies that "lift the mind out of the grooves and give it a happy playground to which it can constantly turn for refreshment. They preserve your vitality and they keep old age at bay."

The university enriched private life. "It provides certain permanent intellectual interests which are always there in the background as a refuge and a refreshment."

He had always tried to have one or two subjects on hand on which he worked and which engaged a different part of himself from that which was employed in earning one's bread. "You may call it a hobby but it was a hobby taken quite seriously."

Such interests kept a man or a woman young. Lord Tweedsmuir referred to the late Lord Balfour using his leisure from politics for relief "in the purer air of science and philosophy." Walter Leaf, a leader in British banking, became perhaps the greatest authority on the Homeric poems. There were many other examples, he said.

In his capacity as visitor to the university Lord Tweedsmuir wrote "A Message to McGill Graduates" for the quarterly published by the Graduate Society.

He recalled his three years at Glasgow University where "I had to walk four miles to the 8 o'clock class through all the varieties of unspeakable weather with which Glasgow, in winter, fortifies her children."

He was "an inconspicuous student, and I won prominence only at the rectorial elections. One especially I remember where, against my convictions, I chose to support the Liberal cause, because I had heard of the Liberal candidate, Mr. Asquith, but not of his opponent. I nearly came by my end at the hands of a red-headed Conservative savage, who is now the ex-cabinet minister, Sir Robert Horne."

The session lasted only half the year. "After a winter of hard work I became for six months an unlettered vagabond, wandering about Scotland on an old bicycle in the quest of trout. I am not sure that these long idle summers were not the best part of my education."

Oxford University had "smoothed out the prig and the barbarian in me and, I hope, gave me a reasonable perspective in life." Since then, said Lord Tweedsmuir, who won fame as John Buchan, novelist and historian, "I have had many professions—lawyer, businessman, soldier, government official, politician. But my university life has given me a permanent background, the value of which I would like to suggest to you."

Close Custom Houses

Economies Expected And Planned By National Revenue Department

Economies and planned in the national revenue department were outlined by Revenue Minister J. L. Bayley when his estimates were considered in the House of Commons. Some 15 or 20 customs ports have been closed since the minister took over the department and he was convinced there were still too many.

Canada, in fact, had a superabundance of customs ports as compared with other countries. There were still 433 in Canada, the United States, with its huge population and great volume of trade, had only 268 and Great Britain had only 59.

Doctors used to regard cancer and tuberculosis as diseases antagonistic to one another; but now it is realized that individuals may have both at once, and even in the same organ.

The Gardens Of England

Most Popular One On View Is At Sandringham

People on the side of the Atlantic here much about the glory of English gardens, not the gardens of the working people, but of the stately homes. When they go over for a trip they visit the places of historic interest and the better known beauty spots, and it is not sufficiently known that special tours can be arranged so that they may see many of the most beautiful gardens for a small sum at each place, the money usually being donated by the owner to a local charity or, more often, to the Queen's Institute of District Nurses. There are, in fact, over 1,000 gardens on view. Some of these have traditions for 500 years back, one of the most interesting of the older gardens being at Ann Hathaway's cottage, near Stratford-on-Avon, which Shakespeare knew so well.

The most popular garden is, of course, Sandringham, in Norfolk, which the King throws open three times a week. The late King was always very interested in the garden scheme and handed over £1,000 last year which was taken at Sandringham alone, a greater sum incidentally than was raised by any one county. Among the greater historic homes which are open at regular intervals are Hatfield, a few miles from London, the home of the Cecils; Knole, in Kent, the home of the Sackvilles; Chatsworth, in Derbyshire, the great palace of the Cavendishes; Brockley, the home of Melbourne and Palmerston; Harwood House, the home of the Princess Royal, and Eaton Hall, the home of the Dukes of Westminster. In homes such as these, English history has been made for several centuries.—St. Thomas Times-Journal.

Winty Settings

Hollywood Now Has Plant For Making Real Snow

Film companies seeking wintery settings and icy air can find them now at home, in the midst of Hollywood's palms and semi-tropical weather. A former ice refrigeration plant has been converted into a "wintery" sound stage, where nature's cold tricks may be reproduced artificially.

Snowstorms, using real snow, will be created by a snow machine in two styles, the fine hard snow of blizzards and the soft, flaked snow of milder weather. An actor caught in a "blizzard" will be pelted with pulverized ice. Snowflakes are the product of crystallized water. Both types of snow are driven on the scene through a four-inch hose, the force regulated by the speed of fans in the machine.

Roman Emperor Augustus decorated the walls of his villa in Capri with great fossil bones—which he believed were bones of human giants once inhabiting Italy.

Health League Of Canada Making Great Strides In Decreasing Mortality Rate

"While it is true that great advances have been made in the control of communicable diseases there are other diseases which are at the present time taking too great a toll of life. I have in mind such conditions as heart disease, tuberculosis, pneumonia, influenza and cancer, particularly the latter, Major Hon. C. G. Power, M.C., Minister of Pensions and National Health, told the annual meeting of the Ottawa Social Hygiene Council recently. Mayor Power complimented the Council, its parent body the Health League of Canada and all active health agencies on the strides made in decreasing the mortality rate of such diseases as diphtheria and typhoid fever by educating the public to a greater use of tonics, pasteurization and other preventive measures.

At the same time he pointed out that there was no positive prevention against cancer, tuberculosis and heart disease. Nevertheless, all are curable if treated in their earliest stages of development. To that end the one positive means of control was the periodic health examination which assured early recognition and consequently prompt and effective treatment.

How necessary it is to check the spread of cancer is indicated by the fact that there were 10,570 known cancer-deaths in the Dominion in 1934. Similarly there has been a marked increase in deaths due to heart disorders since 1928 when vital statistics for the whole of Canada were available for the first time. While tuberculosis-deaths are known to be on the decline, medical authorities are of the opinion that they could have been decreased 50 per cent. last year if the measures for combating the disease had been more "uniformly and effectively" applied. Ascertaining that the one and only real fear attached to cancer to-day should be the "fear of delay in its discovery" Dr. J. W. S. McCullough, former Chief Inspector of Health for Ontario, urged the people of this province to give attention to its control by early treatment.

Symptoms stressed by Dr. McCullough are lumps, unhealing sores, digestive troubles, difficulty in swallowing and chronic hoarseness. It is a fact, he states, that "95 per cent of cases of cancer occur after 35 years of age."

"Pain is not an early sign. It is a pity that it is not more generally recognized that a bad toothache, if it were the disease would be discovered when it is certainly curable," he said.

On the diagnosis of any symptoms he was emphatic: "Be sure you get a decided opinion one way or another. You either have cancer or you haven't. There is nothing else."

to it. And if you have the answer you know it better."

Hereditary cancer, Dr. McCullough states, occurs only in two or three very rare forms. Age and chronic irritation are the chief causes and therefore demand the constant vigilance of the people themselves. So far as irritation is concerned it is a fact that some people are far more susceptible than others.

Activities in the formation of local branches of the Health League of Canada, formerly the Canadian Social Hygiene Council, are noticeable throughout the province. St. Catharines, according to Dr. D. V. Currey, Medical Officer of Health, has already begun organization work which will be completed in the very near future. At its recent annual meeting the Ottawa Social Hygiene Council voted the incoming executive the power to change the name of that branch to conform with the new name chosen by the parent body.

This week's health fact: For an average million persons in the United States there will occur annually between 800,000 and 900,000 cases of illness. It may be predicted that for every week of the year, there will be 400,000 not be sick during a normal year, 400,000 will be sick once or twice, and 70,000 will be sick three or more times. Of those who become ill 25 per cent. will be disabled for periods ranging from one week to the full year. The annual money lost in wages caused by this sickness in families with small and modest incomes will be not less than $800,000,000 and the still larger expenses of medical cases probably are not less than $1,500,000,000.

Americans Import Grass

Demand For Created Wheatgrass Exceeds The Supply

Because of its value as a forage crop that will regrow after land of low value, demand for created wheatgrass seeds exceeds the supply, according to a report from the U.S. department of agriculture.

The grass was introduced into the United States from the dry plains of Siberia. The unusual demand for seed was attributed to several causes. The excellent way in which the grass came back last year after two years of drought, its value for hay and pasture, and the comparative ease with which it can be harvested and planted have proven its value to the farmer and the department said.

Experiments made at Judith Basin, Mont., have disclosed that cattle pastured more days and made greater gains on fewer acres of created wheatgrass than on native grass. The average gain per steer in pounds was 291 for wheatgrass 249 for bromine, and 114 for native grass. Similar results were obtained at other stations.

The grass appears two or four weeks earlier than native grass in the spring and lasts four to six weeks longer in the fall, if moisture conditions are favorable. It makes hay of a high quality, is a good seed producer, and is an excellent grass to use in rotation, especially as a sod crop for flax.

Not In His Line

Three sailors were spending their Easter leave in the country. Presently two of them got into a heated argument over what kind of animal a halibut was.

"It's a sort of pig," said one. "Not on your life," replied the other. "It's a kind of sheep."

Finally they called in the third party.

"Bill," said the first sailor, "what's a halibut—is it a pig or a sheep?"

Bill scratched his head, non-plussed.

"To tell you the truth, shipmates," he said, "I dunno much about poultry."

Youth Congress To Obtain Expression Of Opinion On Peace Policy

A congress of Canadian people will be held in Ottawa, May 23, 24 and 25. Delegates and representatives from youth organizations of every opinion from every part of Canada, will participate.

The congress is being called to obtain an expression of youth opinion on "A Peace Policy for Canada" and "Youth in the Canadian Economy." Mutual agree-ment will be sought on these problems to be used as a guide to the Canadian delegation to the World Youth Congress in Geneva in early September.

It is being called by a committee under the chairmanship of T. W. L. MacDermot, principal of Upper Canada College. Initiated by the League of Nations Society in Canada and the Canadian Youth Council, this committee is being enlarged to include representatives from all national young people's organizations, including the political groups, and regional representatives from various parts of Canada.

The agenda as prepared by the committee, includes, under the heading, "Youth in the Canadian Economy," discussions on employment, education and vocational training, recreation and social legislation. Under the heading, "A Peace Policy for Canada," discussion will be directed to Canada's relation to the Empire and to the League of Nations, the right of governments to commit people to war and the control of raw materials. The final discussion, in the form of summary, is headed "The Duty of Canadian Youth" in particular relation to Canada, to the world, to the promotion of the ideals of the congress and the understanding of the problems of youth.

The committee is working on some plan to materially reduce the expense to delegates from distant points. Headquarters for the congress committee are at 92 Adelaide street West, Toronto.

A Great Advantage

The new trans-Atlantic air service planned to link Britain and Canada will be extended to the United States because of the "obvious advantages" of securing a portion of America's mail and passenger traffic, Sir Philip Sassoon, under-secretary for air, told the British House of Commons.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

APRIL 5

JESUS MEETING HUMAN NEEDS

Golden text: Come; for all things are now ready. Luke 14:17.
Lesson: Luke 14.
Devotional reading: Isaiah 55:1-7.

Explanations And Comments

The Parable of the Slighted Invitation, Luke 14:15-24. Jesus' mention of the recompense in "the resurrection of the just" (verse 14) reminded a guest present in the Pharisee's house (verse 1) of the great feast which, according to Jewish belief, would usher in the Messianic reign, and he complacently observed, "Blessed is he who shall eat bread in the kingdom of God." Then Jesus told him a parable designed to disabuse his mind of his evident expectation that, being a Jew, he would be present as his right. "Yes," said the Master, "blessed indeed are they who sit down at the heavenly feast! You think you are one of those whom the kingdom of heaven has invited to the banquet; what have you done, though, with the invitation? I know many who have re-served, who have slowly tossed it aside; are you of that number? Listen now to my story of the divine banquet, and of the invited there-to" (Spence).

"A certain man [who represents God] made a great supper; and he bade many," thus Jesus parables begins. A supper! There is the symbol of true earthly pleasure, especially to an oriental mind. By no other figure could our Lord have expressed to the audience so attractively the idea of real happiness as by a feast. This is his favorite symbol for the kingdom of heaven. Here it is a great supper. Elsewhere it is a wedding festival; and yet again the marriage feast of a king's son."

He sent forth his servant (Jesus Christ) at supper time to say to them that were bidden, "Come; for all things are now ready." Dwight L. Moody, when preaching upon this parable, was wont to read this answer to the invitation: "Having received this invitation through my servant an invitation to be present at the marriage-supper of the Lamb, I here and now give thanks for invit-ing me, and by their help will cer-tainly accept it and be present." Such, however, was not the response that the message received. They all with one accord began to make excuse, to "beg off," as is the literal understanding. They were moved by the same spirit, though their excuses differed. They had all made their engagements for business or pleasure without regard to the ban-quet, to which they were indifferent.

Seek Canadian Exhibits

South Africa Wants Dominion Re-presented At Empire Show

Canadian exhibits for the Empire Exhibition at Johannesburg, South Africa, are being sought, according to a letter received at the Regina Board of Trade from F. P. Cogrove, of the Government of South Africa, Ottawa. The pamphlet accompanying the letter outlines facilities available for the Canadian section of the exhibition and gives details of the arrangements. South Africa, it points out, is the fifth best market for Canadian goods.

Concentrated Sunlight

Harnesses Sun Power With A Revolving Battery Of Mirrors
H. E. McCoy, bald Los Angeles inventor, gingerly held a steel plate in front of a beam of his "concentrated sunlight" and chuckled as the sun promptly melted a hole through the plate, the molten metal dripping down like melted butter.

He waved triumphantly at a huge revolving battery of 60 mirrors which was focussing the bright California noon-day sun into a beam some 4,000 degrees Fahrenheit in temperature.

"We'll run all our factories with sun power" through outfits like this some day," he declared.

McCoy's invention consists of three panels, each holding 20 curved slabs of silvered window glass. They tip up or down and run on a circular track, following the sun's path from east to west. The sun's rays are kept aimed constantly on a fire-brick oven 15 feet away.

All the sunlight striking 60 square feet of mirror is concentrated on the small target, raising the temperature to approximately half the terrific heat of the surface of the sun itself.

McCoy says he has melted, among other metals, tungsten, carbide, indicating the furnace develops well over 4,000 degrees Fahrenheit.

Believe It Or Not

Englishman Chains Mummified Hawk Alive During Arctic Expedition

If ever war is declared on Great Britain, Sir Mark Grant-Sturgis will only have to look at a mummified hawk which he owns. The bird will be bleeding from beak and breast.

The hawk originally came from Egypt, and I understand that its habit of bleeding during British crises was discovered at the time of the Boer War. Throughout this war and the Great War the hawk bled continuously. Sir Mark saw the bird the other day. Unmoved by Italian Abyssinian bloodshed, the patriotic hawk remains as dry as a bone—Dally Mirror.

LIVELY DEBATE IN COMMONS OVER WHEAT PAYMENT

Ottawa.—Tempera flamed and harsh words echoed across the House of Commons when Conservative Leader Bennett accused Agriculture Minister Gardiner of charging him with falsifying an order-in-council referring to wheat payments.

In the wildest scene of the session, the former prime minister demanded a full investigation of the circumstances related by the minister, but this more or less disappeared when Mr. Gardiner said he made no accusations against Mr. Bennett. He had, he said, made "no insinuations but a plain statement of fact that goes under your hide."

The facts of the case were these: On Oct. 10, 1935, four days before the election, the Bennett government passed an order-in-council providing for payment of money to western pool farmers who did not receive 60 cents a bushel for their 1930 crop.

The agriculture minister said there was added in pen and ink to the report to council, the basis for the order-in-council, a stipulation the money should not be paid until an auditor's certificate was received. This was added, he said, after a telegram was sent from a finance department official in Toronto to a department official in Ottawa, Mr. Bennett being in Toronto that day.

The Conservative leader accused the minister of relating the story in order to leave the implication an order-in-council had been falsified after passage. Otherwise, he said, there could be no purpose in relating it.

Mr. Gardiner denied the implication. He related the story, he said, to show the Bennett government, by adding the stipulation relating to the auditor's report, had delayed payments. If the words added in ink had not been included, payments could have been made immediately. Mr. Bennett insisted the words were added to protect the public treasury and deny what was not in the government's mind.

The whole scene threw the house into a turmoil which at times ran to heavy drama and at other times to slap-stick comedy. The drama was interrupted by Mr. Bennett referring to his record for integrity and his honor built up through the years which now was being impugned.

There were several periods of comedy with Mr. Bennett and Mr. Gardiner arguing for five minutes at a stretch who had the right to speak. At another time, the Conservative leader and the minister passed the order-in-council and the auditor's report back and forth between them, asking questions and answering them.

Mayors Appoint Committee

All Provinces Represented On Group To Continue Efforts

Ottawa.—A continuing committee of twelve members, on which all provinces have representation, was appointed at the Dominion conference of mayors.

Western members on the committee are: Manitoba, John Queen, Winnipeg; Saskatchewan, H. S. Johnston, Moose Jaw; Alberta, A. Davidson, Calgary; British Columbia, David Leeming, Victoria; G. McGeer, Vancouver.

During a business session the finance committee, among other things, reported disapproval of lotteries. Members called for a standing vote and the report was approved 27 to 14.

Letter To King Edward

Toronto.—Olivia Dionne's letter to King Edward VIII, asking that custody of his quintuplets be restored to him has returned to Ontario. It was received from Ottawa by Hon. H. C. Nixon, provincial secretary, who passed it on to Welfare Minister Croll. Mr. Croll, it is expected, will answer the letter, explaining that the king, who has the five babies as his wards, is determined to keep control of them for the present at least.

Canadian Legion Meetings

Decide To Alternate Between Eastern And Western Centres

Vancouver.—The Canadian Legion turned down a proposal that all future conventions be held at Ottawa and decided they be alternated between eastern and western centres with the Dominion convention empowered to call a convention if an emergency arises.

It was also decided that a convention be held in Ottawa shortly after each Dominion election, and that not more than two years elapse between conventions.

Brig.-Gen. Alex Ross, Yorkton, Sask., Dominion president, introduced the motion that all conventions be held in Ottawa. He felt that Ottawa was closer to the heart of legion activities and meetings there would help cut down expenses.

British Columbia delegates introduced the amendment that the meetings be alternated between east and west and this carried. The next convention city will be decided upon by a vote of the membership.

Naval Officer Slain

Vice-Admiral Somerville Murdered In His Home In Ireland

Castletown, Ireland.—Vice-Admiral Henry Boyle Townshend Somerville, senior naval officer at Halifax, N.S., in 1917, was murdered by one of four gunmen who invaded his home and shot him dead.

Driving up in an automobile, the culprit rushed into the vice-admiral's residence. One of them drew a revolver and discharged it at Somerville. Then they all ran out. The only witness to the murder was the naval officer's wife who was too grief-stricken to give a detailed account of the slaying.

The motive for the killing was not disclosed.

Wheat Board Probe

Minister Of Trade And Commerce Is Appointed Chairman

Ottawa.—The house committee to inquire into the operations of the wheat board chose Hon. W. D. Euler, minister of trade and commerce, as its chairman. He said the committee was established because of charges made by Conservative Leader Bennett in connection with sales of wheat by the new wheat board.

The house will be asked to grant the committee permission to employ counsel and an auditor if the committee finds it advisable.

The chairman will prepare a sub-committee of five to appoint an agenda.

Calgary.—Endorsement of the Farmers' Creditors' Arrangement Act, the Canadian chamber of agriculture and the soil conservation program in the three prairie provinces was given here by directors and officials of the three prairie wheat pools before they concluded a three-day conference.

The Natural Products Marketing Act was approved in principle. It was felt the act was in the best interests of Canadian agriculture and such legislation should be effective throughout Canada.

New Dionne Film

Fight For Control Of Quintuplets To Be Told In Pictures

Hollywood.—Indication the fight of Olivia and Elzire Dionne for complete custody of their quintuplet daughters is to be told in pictures was seen in an announcement from the Universal studio.

Charles Rogers, who recently assumed control of that studio, said he had signed Mr. and Mrs. Dionne and their five older children for a screen play titled "Where Are My Children."

The picture, Rogers said, will be filmed here. He did not disclose when the French-Canadian parents of the quints and their older children would arrive from Callander, Ont., to go before the cameras.

The Dionnes have sought, through many avenues, to regain custody of the five famous babies, now approaching their second birthdays. Olivia revealed recently he had petitioned King Edward in the matter a month ago. It was learned the letter had been returned to the governor-general of Canada and eventually forwarded to the Ontario government for a reply.

The quints, wards of the king and watched over by an official board of guardians, are presently making an international hit on the screen. They are appearing in "The Country Doctor."

The two airmen will take off from the Nova Zembla islands, in the near north of Russia, and endeavor to fly 400 miles of frozen sea to their destination.

To Supervise Fisheries Patrol

Appointment For Man Who Resigned Seat For Dunning

Ottawa.—The government position given James J. Larabee, of Eilon, P.E.I., who resigned in Queens to make a vacancy for Finance Minister Dunning, calls for supervision over operation of the fisheries patrol services with a view to effecting economies.

Documents relative to the appointment were tabled in the House of Commons at the request of A. J. Brooks (Cons., Royal). They showed that Mr. Larabee, member-elect for Queens, had been made "special officer in the fisheries protective service" at $3,500 salary with traveling and living expenses when away from home.

The order instructed Mr. Larabee to devote his full time to supervision of operation of the fisheries protective vessels and the fisheries patrol boards on the Atlantic. He was not to interfere with their operations or routine of work, but to report to the department suggested means of effecting economies.

Requests Immediate Action

Solving Of Railway Problem Asked By Canadian Chamber Of Commerce

Montreal.—"Immediate and effective action to solve our urgent and pressing railway problem," was asked by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce in a communication despatched to government authorities at Ottawa. Recommendations were made to the government by the chamber, "in view of the serious financial situation of Canada."

The chamber also recommended that power to regulate rates and service, now in the hands of the government, should be carefully protected, and if necessary the functions and authority of the board of railway commissioners should be extended.

School Grants Remain Same

Saskatchewan Cannot Make Any Increase Until Next Year

Saskatoon.—There will be no increase in Saskatchewan school grants this year, C. W. McCool, K.C., chairman, told the high school board here. He said he had been in conversation with Premier W. J. Patterson and the premier had stated the province would be in no position to increase the grants until after another crop had been harvested.

The answer was given by the chairman of the board in response to a question from a board member. In replying, Mr. McCool said the premier had assured him increases would be given next year.

Grant For Naturalists

Toronto.—Provincial Secretary Harry Nixon disclosed the Ontario government is making a grant of $1,000 to Jack Miner, Canadian naturalist, for his bird sanctuary at Kingsville in Essex county.

CONTINUANCE OF NAVAL ARMS PARITY ASSURED

London.—Great Britain and the United States guaranteed a continuance of their parity in naval armaments just before these two nations and France signed the new London naval treaty, dropping restrictions on the size of the world's greatest navies.

British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and the chief American delegate, Norman H. Davis, exchanged letters, each declaring the principle of parity, contained in existing treaties with regard to their two fleets, would continue to hold good after the old treaties expire and the new one goes into effect.

The new pact, replacing the Washington naval limitations treaty of 1922 and the London treaty of 1930, limited neither the number nor the tonnage of the fleets of the three participating powers, but introduced a new scheme for advance notification of naval building programs.

Delegates to the international conference which shaped the new treaty expressed hope the program for exchanges of information would curb any sea armaments race for at least six years.

The new treaty also limited the sizes of the individual types of warships and inaugurated a building holiday for the larger type of cruisers, in place of the battleship building holiday which endured for 14 years under the expiring Washington treaty.

Any power can build as many ships of any type it desired—a move prohibited under both the Washington and the old London treaties, expiring Dec. 31, 1936.

The powers hoped the new treaty would go into effect immediately upon expiration of the old, or as soon as ratification could be completed, to remain in effect until Dec. 31, 1942.

Limitations on the size of battleships remained at 35,000 tons, but the powers agreed to consider in 1940 a possible reduction in size if experiments on new vessels proved this practical. The maximum size of guns was set provisionally at 14 inches, but the five signatories of the Washington treaty—Britain, United States, France, Japan and Japan—must ratify this by Jan. 1, 1937, or the present 16-inch limit will remain in effect.

Italian Air Power

Says Air Fleet In A Position To Sweep Mediterranean

Rome.—"The Italian air fleet is in a position to sweep the Mediterranean. No point in the Mediterranean can escape our control."

These strident declarations by General Giuseppe Valle, Italian under-secretary of aviation, sent the chamber of deputies into wild cheers.

Continuing his address to the chamber of deputies, General Valle asserted that Italy's bombing planes, each carrying 3,300 pounds of bombs, could cover every section of the Mediterranean and that the present air strength was well on the way to being doubled. He did not, however, reveal the present strength.

General Valle announced that Italy had completed her reserve stocks of fuel and oil for her air fleet and could meet any war contingencies.

Numerous air bases will be maintained in East Africa, even after the war with Ethiopia is concluded, to police the newly-conquered territory, Valle said, adding that at the present time 25 airports had been built in Eritrea and 54 in Somaliland.

As for flying training, he said that only three fatalities had occurred in 33,000 hours of training between 1933 and 1935.

Would Ban Criminals

Toronto.—Co-operation of the Dominion departments of justice and immigration with a view to curbing immigration of aliens of a criminal type into Canada so that so many would not come before Canadian courts was suggested by the general sessions grand jury before Judge James Parker.

"ABERHART IS NOW ON THE SPOT."

(From the Edison Jasper Signal, March 26, 1936.)

There is at least one thing that has come out of the Douglas-Aberhart correspondence during the past week, no one needs to wonder now whether Major Douglas is coming to Alberta or not, and the job of providing "dividends" is now strictly up to Aberhart. He said it could be done, and the people have a right to presume that he knew what he was talking about, altho there may be some doubt in the minds of a few of them.

There is considerable criticism of Major Douglas by Aberhart Party stalwarts. Whether this criticism is justified or not can only be judged by the publication of the complete Douglas-Aberhart correspondence, and as Aberhart has stated that he will publish "part of it" he will have only himself to blame if people come to the conclusion that the parts he will not publish are those which direct criticism toward himself. For instance, we would not have been told who the three men were that Major Douglas suggested possess the necessary knowledge to advise Aberhart.

Mr. H. Spencer has been an outstanding student of monetary reform for many years, and during the time he was member of the Dominion House advocated a new monetary system in season and out of season. Mr. H. C. Boyd, M.A., LL.B., of Edgerton, has specialized in the history of monetary reform and the legal aspect as applied to Alberta, and is the author of a comprehensive brief on Provincial Rights. Mr. Larkham Collins is a chartered accountant in Calgary; he is an expert on Social Credit technique, and was responsible for bringing Douglas to Alberta in 1934. These qualifications can be placed on the credit side.

On the debit side we must place the facts that Mr. Spencer was not a member of the Aberhart Party. He was the U.F.A.-C.C.F. member for Battle River previous to the last election, and was defeated by an Aberhart candidate. He has never believed that Aberhart could do what he said he could. Mr. Boyd was a prominent member of the Provincial Douglas organisation, but resigned just previous to the election and threw his weight over to the Aberhart Party, filling many speaking engagements, some of these at the request of Aberhart himself. Mr. Collins came under the Aberhart ban several years ago when he insisted that Aberhart did not know what he was talking about.

The point to be borne in mind is that these men come from different camps, but all are qualified to give Aberhart the necessary advice. Aberhart either does not know this or is not big enough to admit it, and is allowing his small, petty mind, for which he has become famous—or (censored)—to influence him in this very important matter.

However, Aberhart is now on the spot. He was the man who said that he, with the help and advice of Major Douglas, could pay every bona fide citizen of Alberta $25 per month. He has since said that if Major Douglas did not come he would get some other expert or "put in a plan of his own." Alright; now make good!

We are afraid that Aberhart is going to find that while ballyhoo placed him in power, it is going to take brains to stay there.

CHAPTER X.

Fleming ran down the few steps from the saloon platform, crossed the board sidewalk, and grasped her pinto's bridle. "Robbed?" he echoed. "You mean our eight hundred— it's gone?"

"Yes! As I rode past the timber near Iron Spring a man held me up. I struggled with him," she panted. "But he got our eight hundred dollars. Oh, Link, what shall we do?"

He slipped the pinto's reins over his arm. Out of the corners of his eyes he saw men hurrying from the saloon. "Bih—make out! It don't amount to much, Helen," he added with quick concern at sight of a dark bruise on her cheek. "You're hurt!"

"No. It's nothing." She touched the spot and with fingers that trembled, tucked her glossy hair into place and readjusted her worn Stetson. The girl brushed dust from her blouse and skirt and glanced toward the approaching men. Suddenly her eyes encountered Buzz. At first she gulped incredulously and her red lips parted. Then uttering a low cry, Helen darted forward.

"Buzz!" She flung herself into his arms. "Buzz!"

Fleming, with Roger Kilgo, Mell, and the others watched for an instant the mute display of affection between brother and sister. Touched by the scene, they turned away. Link felt a hand on his arm and looked up into the grey glinting eyes of Sheriff Ames Stephen.

"She got robbed, Link? How much? Who did it? Where?"

He could not reply to the third question but did answer the first. "Ames," the Star Loop owner said in a tone the others could not hear, "don't let out how much, 'cause it'd make things harder for us at the dam. Helen got robbed of eight hundred bucks we just borrowed from Otto Pieper."

The law man's eyes widened. He strode over to the girl, Fleming at his heels. "Tell me about it, Miss Hamilton, so's I can start huntin' for the guy right off!"

There was another moment of staring at Buzz, taking his thin face between her two soft palms while she kissed him again and again. "Oh," she breathed as happy, thankful tears coated down the smooth tan of her cheeks. "I'm glad you're free, Buzz! Nothing else matters now. But how—" She stopped. "I don't understand. Your three years?"

"Link got me paroled," Buzz measured the rancher with eyes that expressed not the slightest gratitude.

Helen turned to look at Fleming, who shifted weight in embarrassment. At length he lifted his gaze to find hers still fixed upon him. Unspeakable tenderness lay in the soft pool of her eyes, and a fondness he had scarcely dared hope even to exist. Of a sudden he felt again that the Silver Creek project must be made a success! So that later, when both spreads prospered from its waters, he could ask Helen the question he had toyed with inwardly while they looked at the wedding and engagement ring display in Irv Lane's window.

She was describing the holdup. "He wore a bandana mask and walked out from behind a big boulder right alongside the road. He had two guns, and he was a heavy-set man, not very tall, but powerful looking. He wanted the money we—I had just drawn from the bank."

"How much?" Kilgo asked directly.

"I had my thirty-eight," she continued, pretending not to hear. "I tried to get it, but he came at me and grabbed my wrist. Pulled me off my horse, and we struggled. He hurt me, bending my arm behind my back. But I got a clue," she finished with grim-set lips. "I got this!"

Helen held forth a leather wrist cuff such as was commonly worn by punchers. It was not new but dark with use, and its rivet design of a fleur-de-lis could only be made out

because of Headaches!

Now well again
and gains weight

"I used to have headaches so severe I could not sleep. I tried everything without success until I started Fruit-A-Tives. In a short time I gained weight and never suffer any more from the old bad headaches," says Mrs. J. Scriver, 258 Earl St., Kingston, Ont. Fruit-A-Tives are not habit-forming nor do they give just temporary relief. They contain extracts of APPLES, ORANGES, FIGS, PRUNES and HERBS and work naturally to cleanse and tone up the entire system. Fruit-A-Tives have brought permanent relief to thousands. on close inspection. Ames accorded it a brief scrutiny and held the object aloft. "Anybody know whose this is?"

Apparently no one did. The cuff resembled others worn by many a man in Boone County, yet was not exactly similar. At length Stephen turned on his heel, starting toward his office fifty yards down the street. "I'm goin' for a look at the pulled over your eyes! Paroled this way, I haven't got 'em."

Helen stared from one man to the other, her pleasant oval face drawn in pain. "Oh, Buzz, don't say that! I went into partnership with Link of my own free will. Why, that dam is going to be the makings of our spread!"

Again he fished the flat bottle from his pocket. "Makin' of the Star Loop, yuh mean?" Uncorking the flask, he raised it to his lips.

"Buzz! Don't drink, please! You know you—that it was part of the cause of your shooting—I mean—"

She stopped, anxiety and hurt fighting for dominance of her lovely face. "Buzz, please don't begin drinking and gambling the instant you come home!"

He swallowed some of the fiery liquor as if deliberately to flout her request. But of a sudden, as he was stowing the bottle away, Link spurred his stallion to Hamilton's off-side. With a quick sweep of his hand he sent the bottle hurtling into the dust.

Buzz gasped. "What the hell yuh doin'?"

"Keep this up and your parole is going to end doggone sudden. I planned to surprise your sister, make her happy for sight of you, and here you go back to company like Jackpot Mell and the others the minute you land in town. Watch your step!" Fleming warned sharply. "Or you'll find yourself on the inside lookin' out, like you were till I went to a lot of bother to help you!"

"Threatenin' me, eh?" I wish to goah yuh'd let Roger Kilgo get me pardoned! You an' yore schemes for controllin' our spread! Wastin' every cent Helen has, and then buyin' us in.

Use Special Piano

Josef Hofmann, the noted pianist, uses a sloping chair. The piano he uses is said to have slightly narrower keys than the regular make, because Hofmann's fingers are very short, and the edges of the keys are bevelled to minimize friction. Hofmann was born in Cracow, Galicia.

Tin cans were first made by tin-smiths, who turned them out by hand at the rate of 60 a day.

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family are taking for the relief of headaches is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about "ASPIRIN."

He will tell you that before the discovery of "Aspirin" most "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart. Which is food for thought if you seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists rate "Aspirin" among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and the pains of rheumatism, neuritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this:

Little Helps For This Week

In your patience possess ye your souls. Luke 21:19.

What though thy way be dark, and earth
With countless care doth vex till mirth

To thee no sweet strain singeth;
Still hide thy life above, and still Believe that God is love: fulfill
Whatever lot He bringeth.

The soul loses command of itself when it is impatient. When it submits without a murmur it possesses itself in peace, and possesses God. To be impatient is to desire what we have not, or not to desire what we have. Why make a calamity of it by being impatient? Peace does not dwell in outward things, but within the soul. We may preserve it in the midst of bitterest pain if our will remains firm and submissive. Peace in this life springs from acquiescence even in disagreeable things, not in an exemption from bearing them. The chief pang of most trials is not so much the actual suffering itself as our own spirit of resistance to it.

Registering for Dividends.

(Edmonton Journal.)
Registration of Alberta citizens who would be eligible for Social Credit Basic Dividends has been postponed indefinitely. Premier Aberhart said Wednesday in explaining lack of action since the plan was announced last autumn. "When we said we were preparing registration forms and would be sending them out soon," the Premier said, "we were counting on having Major C. H. Douglas come to Alberta to advise us on establishment of a Social Credit Plan, and we wanted to have everything ready for him."

"He had said definitely, don't forget, that he or a dozen others could establish Social Credit in this province in 3 months."

But Major Douglas is no longer the Social Credit adviser to Alberta, the Premier commented; the Provincial Government broke off all relations with him on Tuesday.

"We're going ahead ourselves," Mr. Aberhart added, "but, as we have always said, we do not hope to start paying basic dividends until next year. Therefore there is no need yet of registering the citizens to whom dividends would be paid. Another 11 or 12 months will be time enough for that. In the meantime, the list would have changed greatly anyway, and we would have to do a lot of it over again."

"So we've set the whole thing aside for a time."

Callihan's restaurant, last Monday evening was the scene of a happy gathering, the occasion being a stag party and send-off for our popular 14-lowe-townsmen Mr. C. Schlang, who is leaving the employ of the Gillespie Grain Co. to engage in farming at Weyburn, Sask.

Our local Merchant and Squire W. J. Connolly acted as chairman and master of ceremonies for the evening in his usual capable manner.

"Bill" expressed the regret of all present in losing from our midst such a highly respectable family, and presented Mr. Slang with a beautiful pair of car robes.

The evening was spent in speech-making, stories and songs. Those contributing to the success of the evening were Dan Brox, Wm. McLeod, M. Stitt, J. Elder, The Brox Bros., H. Beaupre, M. Losinski Jr., Ray Rand, Gus Risvold, C. Fuhr, O. Johnston and others.

Mr. Slang, in a brief speech, expressed his appreciation to all there, for the present and hospitality, and extended an invitation to them to visit him and the family in their new home.

A happy party was brought to a close by all singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

On the Side.

Mr. Chas. B. Halpin, who edited The Locomotive Globe for the past 29 years, was recently honored by the citizens of that town, who paid him a warm tribute. Mr. Halpin is retiring, after an experience of six decades in the printing business. The Globe is said to be one of the best weeklies in Alberta.

—One evidence that peace is likely to be maintained in Europe, in spite of the many alarming reports which reach us, is the fact that Lloyd's, in London, are quoting the following rates: 20 to 1 against a war between any leading European powers within 3 months; 14 to 1 against a war within 9 months.

—The despatches tell us that, among the ten cases which came before the debt review board at Peace River on March 25 was that of a man who had turned in all his horse power, plus a cash payment, to get power machinery, became unable to pay for the machinery, had it seized, and now is endeavoring to operate his farm with oxen—back to first principles, as it were.

—So we're not to have our social credit basic dividends—yet. If these were available now, some of us would have found them convenient for paying the extra levy on the Income tax, the extra 2 p.c. on the Sales tax, etc. Not to mention the extra tax we'll be called on to pay for our new license to drive the motor car.
